

Centenary Dolphins Swim Club

One-to-One Transport Consent Form

Purpose

Centenary Dolphins Swim Club is committed to providing a safe, child-centred environment for all swimmers.

This form is used when one-to-one transport between a club representative and a child or young person is unavoidable. One-to-one transport will only occur when no reasonable alternative is available and must be approved by a parent or guardian before the transport takes place.

All transport arrangements will comply with the National Integrity Framework, Swimming Australia's Safeguarding Children policies, Queensland child protection legislation, and the club's safeguarding procedures.
